

10 MASTEROBJECTS, INC.,

11 Plaintiff,

No. C 20-08103 WHA

12 v.

13 AMAZON.COM, INC,

14 Defendant.

FURTHER ORDER RE AMAZON'S MOTION FOR SANCTIONS

15
16 In its opening brief, Amazon must candidly and frankly deal with the assertion by 17 MasterObjects that the pertinent disclosures in the 2011 litigation between the parties were
18 only protected by Federal Rule of Evidence 408 and not protected by any protective order or
19 any other agreement. Do not save this material for reply and instead deal with it up front.

20 Further, both parties should cite to specific written agreements or written documents that
21 place the disclosures under a protective order or other written agreement. What counsel
22 “understood” will not carry the day.

23 IT IS SO ORDERED.

25 Dated: February 15, 2022.
